OUR VALUES & OUR PRINCIPLES

OUR VALUES

Higher Morality: Our first principle in our business relationships is a high moral understanding. Trust-based healthy relationships can not be established in a business world where morality is not front-line. It reduces the yield and quality in trade.

Justice: In our understanding of business, it is not about earning the most, but our principle is to do a fair and honest business. In commercial societies where this understanding is not dominant, exploitation and oppression will prevail. This will cause social injustice by making wealth richer and poorer. These injustices are the source of conflict and discomfort in society.

Primal Competition: We have a non-colonial understanding of competition that is in line with ethical principles, not with a brutal capitalist logic.

Reputation and Respect: We keep being honorable in front of all our interests, while avoiding being arrogant. No material interest can prevent us from our mutual respect and dignity.

Solidarity: Just like bricks of a building, we have an understanding that high sacrifice and solidarity is a factor that tightly interlocks each other.

OUR PRINCIPLES

Faith: We have an unshakable belief that we will achieve the goals we have set aside.

Consultation: We do consultations and discussions before starting a business. We express our ideas freely when discussing business issues, and we adopt the decisions taken as common decision of all of us.

Perseverance: We have a structure that always strives to fulfill the decisions that are taken proactive, agile and in consultation, without prejudice and restraint in our works.

Patience: When we do our work, we do it without any hesitation and with the aim to complete it on time.

Loyalty: We have a firm commitment to our organization, our teammates, our country and the proceedings.

Capability and Merit: We give it to the people who are honest and have a sense of justice, who is on duty and able to do his job.

Courage: We do not avoid taking a measured and affordable risk when necessary to get the best results in our business.

Customer Satisfaction: We measure exactly what our customers expect and we produce solutions accordingly.

Social responsibility and Environmental awareness: We are extremely sensitive to our society and the environment. We work with our strength to protect and glorify ourselves, our company, our country, nature and humanity values.

REFORM GROUP recognizes all its members as a requirement of their belief in complying with these core values and business principles.
